*Highlands Music Coffee House is delighted to feature
WIZARD with Bert Holingsworth, Ken Williams & Sherry Clayton
Venue: Caleb Pike House (1589 Millstream Rd., Highlands)*

Bert Holingsworth

Renowned guitarist and vocalist Bert Holingsworth has built a distinguished career as both a performer and educator. Equally at home with electric and classical guitar, Bert is celebrated for his versatility and expressive style, effortlessly moving between genres such as blues, jazz, rock, and classical.

In addition to teaching and mentoring aspiring musicians, Bert continues to perform regularly and remains an active force in the local music scene. He currently hosts the popular Blues and Jazz Jam on Salt Spring Island--a vibrant gathering that showcases his love of collaboration and improvisation while nurturing a strong sense of community through music.

Ken Williams

In his musical career, Ken is best known as a film and television composer, having written scores for major studios like Disney, Sony Pictures, Warner Brothers, Paramount, and Regent Films. But before that, back in the late '60s and '70s, he was busy performing in a wide range of Rock, Pop, and R&B bands. He also worked as a studio bassist at Mushroom Studio in Vancouver and Legacy Studio in Victoria.

Sherry Clayton

Sherry Clayton has performed in a wide variety of ensembles. Her musical journey spans many genres—she's played with everything from world rhythm and funk-pop fusion to alternative metal, reggae, gospel, and Celtic groups. She's also been part of the competition-level VanIsle Caledonia Pipe Band. In addition to live performance, Sherry is an experienced studio musician with credits on various CDs, videos, and session projects.
